

Code of business conduct

The Ad Astra Group's Code of Business Conduct is a set of standards that applies to all employees and officers of the Ad Astra Group worldwide. These standards set out basis rules to guide all employees and officers in carrying out their day-to-day business duties (see <https://www.ad-astraltd.com> , as amended from time to time (the "The Ad Astra Group Code of Conduct"))).

The same is expected of all of the Ad Astra suppliers worldwide. The Seller confirms that, insofar as applicable to the Seller, its operations and business strategies are in line with the principles set out in the Ad Astra's Code of Conduct and that, insofar as applicable to the Seller, it has in place policies and procedures ensuring that all its employees comply and undertake to keep complying, in all respects, with these principles.

Data Protection GDPR

The parties agree to share with each other certain Personal Data (such data received by the other Party: "Shared Data") based on Swiss/Malta/EU/USA/Asia data protection regulations, article 6 par. 1 (b) of the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), and other applicable data protection and privacy laws, for purposes of the performance of this Contract only ("Permitted Purpose"). No special categories of personal data (sensitive data) will be transferred and processed. The party receiving Shared Data from the other shall be referred to herein as the "Data Receiver" and the party transferring Shared Data to the Data Receiver shall be referred to herein as the "Data Discloser".

Details of the Shared Data: categories of data subjects concerned: Individuals involved in the execution of the Contract at both parties or at third parties involved in the execution of the Contract; categories of Shared Data: contact details, such as name, position, location, telephone number or other communication channel data.

The Data Receiver shall always process Shared Data in a professional manner in compliance with applicable law and this Contract exercising due skill, care and diligence and shall implement and apply appropriate, state of the art level of technical and organizational data security standards.

Any disclosure or transfer of Shared Data by the Data Receiver to a third party is only admissible if required for the Permitted Purpose and must comply with applicable laws, in particular articles 25 and 26 GDPR.

Where required under applicable law, either party shall inform data subjects concerned about the sharing of Shared Data under this Contract. Where permitted under applicable laws, the Data Receiver shall promptly notify the Data Discloser of any requests, objections or any other enquiries of data subjects under applicable laws regarding the processing of Shared Data ("Data Subject Requests") which may give rise to any legal obligation or liability or otherwise concern the legitimate interests of the Data Discloser.

In the event of a Personal Data Breach (article 33 GDPR) or disputes with or claims of data subjects, supervisory authorities or other third parties the parties will, where permitted under applicable laws, promptly notify and inform each other provided that such event concerns the processing of Shared Data and may give rise to any legal obligation or liability or otherwise concern the legitimate interests of the other party. The parties shall reasonably coordinate and support each other in relation to any such event.

The Data Receiver shall promptly delete Shared Data once they are no longer required for the Permitted Purposes unless the Data Receiver is required or legally permitted under applicable law to continue processing the Shared Data.
